

GPSR - Funny

Even if you've probably found the imprint long ago, here are the manufacturer's details again. The lawmakers want to make sure that no one overlooks this extremely important stuff.

Imagine if they get sick because of my embroidery designs and don't know who to blame?

In my shop, you are well protected against all the dangers that could arise from embroidery designs.

Manufacturer information:

The manufacturer of all embroidery files in this shop is me.

Silke Oberheiden,
Arenbergstr. 28,
45731 Waltrop.

Information on product safety and hazard warnings, so that no one injures themselves through improper use of the embroidery files:

Warning: This motif could seriously overstrain your laughing muscles and lead to a significant improvement in your mood!

This motif has a built-in sense of humor that is activated every time you look at it. You might even shake with laughter. Therefore, only use this motif if you are prepared to go through the world in a good mood with this embroidery and have tissues ready, because tears of laughter are inevitable.

Note on the return of embroidery motifs:

If you have a device that allows you to beam the original files back to my shop, just let me know so that I can install a corresponding receiver. As long as these futuristic devices are not yet part of your household, the files will not be returned.

Economic actor:

I think it should be called economic juggler, I am that too.

And because the legislator likes to have everything twice and three times, here it is again:
